PULQUE NATURAL, MANGO, PIÑA COLADA & STRAWBERRY PULCATZO

Pulque is a traditional Mexican fermented beverage whose history goes back more than 2000 years. Pulque is made of the fermented sap of the agave plant (also known as "maguey"). The sap is known as "aguamiel" (honey water) in Mexico. Pulque is the great-grandfather of mezcal and tequila. All these beverages come from the amazing agave plant!

BENEFITS OF PULQUE

- Protects intestinal flora
- Acts as a diuretic
- Reduces insomnia (contains melatonin)
- Acts as a nutritional supplement (B-complex vitamins, vitamin C, probiotics)
- Combats anemia
